Remedial Massage

Remedial massage is a system of manipulation of the soft tissues of the body with the hands.

It produces both physical and psychological benefits and can be used both as an injury preventative technique, as well as a treatment for injury.

Massage works on many different levels and it is the unique way in which it combines the various benefits to suit the individual that makes it such a versatile and effective treatment method.

The benefits of remedial massage include

- Improved circulation
- Reduced soft tissue swelling
- Breakdown of scar tissue after injury
- Reduced muscle tension or spasm
- General feeling of well-being
- Pregnancy massage on pregnancy table
